Women Murderers.

New York Sun.
Harrison Lee of Elmore, Ind., being greatly displeased by the probability that his wife would recover from a serious illness, dragged her out of bed and beat her to death. James Welles of Larrabee, Minn., was equally incensed because his wife did not gain strength faster after a fever, and murdered her as a punishment. The motive of John J. Giles for slaying his wife, at Waco, Texas, was also the question of her convalescence. She had been handsome before the illness, but after it he saw that she was likely to be left disfigured.

The Gentle Gondolier.

The Venice gondolieri have struck in consequence of the introduction of small steamers making periodical passages along the chief canals. The gondolieri number about 700, and a strike had never before been indulged in by them; but they had never before seen themselves in danger of being supplanted.

Parloured a Pulpit.

N. Y. Sun.
The pulpit was set outside the church at Winslow, Texas, in order to give room for a stage on which to perform "Pinsford," and when again needed for use it was missing. Several weeks of search elapsed before it was found in a gambling house, where it had been altered into a faro table.

THE CONTRACT COMPLETED.

Thompson and West's "History of Nevada" is being delivered to subscribers. It is a large book, neatly printed and well bound. It contains a great deal of interesting matter, but in some respects shows signs of haste in gathering its facts. Several geographical errors have crept in. The early history of the State is quite interesting and valuable, but it is safe to say that all that is real history might have been put into a pamphlet and sold for half a dollar. The biographical sketches, which go very largely to fill the book, are almost entirely made up of paid puff. If you took a two hundred and fifty dollar steel engraving, you got a whole page for your engraving and another for your life, about half facts and half taffy. A sixty dollar wood cut makes a poorer picture and you are not nearly so great a man. A fifteen dollar wood cut makes you look like one of the car robbers, and the sketch tells where you were born, who you married and how you make your living. It is safe to say that not one in ten of the pictures shown will be of the slightest interest to the general reader, while such faces as John P. Jones, the silver Senator, Tom Fitch, the silver-tongued, H. G. Blasdel, our first Governor, R. M. Daggett, scholar, poet, journalist and Congressman, L. R. Bradley, twice Governor, Governor Nye, of world-wide fame, Wm. Sharen, Tom Williams, Jerry Schooling, General Conner, Bishop Whitaker, J. R. Kittrell, C. C. Batterman, R. M. Clarke, G. W. Cassidy, Charlie Strong, of labor strike notoriety, C. C. Stevenson, Captain Taylor, W. M. Stewart, ex-Congressman Kendall, W. H. Beatty, for sixteen years Supreme Judge, Alex. Baldwin, a noted pioneer lawyer, I. L. Requa, Sandy Bowers, Judge Belknap, Charles E. DeLong, H. M. Yerington, J. Neely Johnson, President of the Constitutional Convention, Surveyor-General Day, Cornelius M. Broeman, once Supreme Judge, etc., Joe Douglas, the capitalist, J. C. Hampton, the merchant prince, John A. Paxton, George A. Nourse, first Attorney-General, etc., Israel Crawford, of Ormsby county, J. A. Collins, one of the organizers of our educational system, Len Savage and old man Gould, Major S. A. Mann, D. L. Bliss, Edgar and D. O. Mills, Jesse Atwell, F. A. Tittle, W. H. Armstrong, a pioneer mill builder, Abe Curry, M. C. Lake, Governor Roop, Captain Ormsby, E. F. Storey, General E. S. Davis, United States Attorney Varian, Judge Sawyer, John James, John A. Rickleton, ex-Congressman Ashley, B. C. Whitman, Charley Gates, John Stone, and such newspaper men as J. C. Lewis, Joe Goodman, C. C. Goodwin, John H. Dennis and Mark Twain are entirely omitted. Not one of the Lieutenant-Governors appears. The pictures of farm houses, etc., will be of interest to the owners and a few friends. The true history of Nevada is one of the most romantic that could be written, and we would like to see it written up honestly and for the love of it.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Judge Folger recommends Congress to stop the coinage of silver dollars, in order to bring about an international understanding in regard to the proper ratio between gold and silver.

One by one the roses fade. They say now that the star of Bethlehem was a myth.

Is Judge Cox the same legal light that defended Mrs. Surratt? Same name.

The Democratic papers East are trying to get up a boom for Blaine.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

Mexican Railroads.
 TUCSON, A. T. December 7.
 D. B. Robinson, General Manager of the Sonora Railroad, says the division between Guaymas and Hermosillo has been approved by Government for operation, and that arrangements would soon be completed allowing connection with the United States. Work will be resumed this month and the line will be reached during the next summer.

The Mexican Central is said seven miles south from El Paso. There are eight hundred men and five hundred teams grading, distributed over one hundred miles of road.

The Mexican Central is meeting with some trouble with the Mexican Government, which has harassed the Sonora road.

Raymond and Ely in Court.
 SAN FRANCISCO, December 7.
 A suit was instituted yesterday in the Superior Court against the Raymond & Ely Mining Co. to have the assessment, No. 16, rescinded, also for the recovery of $387,000. The suit was instituted on the ground of mismanagement in the affairs of the Company.

California Sunday Law.
 SAN FRANCISCO, December 7.
 Justice Myrick of the Supreme Court has granted William Kaser a writ of habeas corpus to test the constitutionality of the Sunday Law. Kaser was arrested in Santa Clara county for violating the law.

Assessments Levied.
 SAN FRANCISCO, December 6.
 Mono levies an assessment of 50c. Segregated Belcher levies an assessment of $1.

More Irish Dividends.
 SAN FRANCISCO, December 7.
 Caledonia and Lady Bryan are each assessed 25 cents.

Arthur on the Chinese Question.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 There is some disappointment here among Pacific coast Representatives at the absence of any hearty recommendation for Legislative action to restrict Chinese immigration in President Arthur's message, especially as the President takes pains to suggest that Congress should carefully regard the interests and susceptibilities of the Chinese Government in legislating upon that subject.

The message does say that Legislation is necessary to carry the treaties into effect, and also the President significantly, though not so openly as might be desired, refers to the evils of unrestricted Chinese immigration.

Arthur vs. Polygamy.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 President Arthur's vigorous utterances upon the Mormon question give unalloyed satisfaction to the Pacific Coast people and all other opponents of polygamy, and will probably have a decided influence on the result of the pending contest in regard to the admission of Campbell as an anti-Mormon delegate. It is considered highly probable that the Republican members of the House will solidly sustain Speaker Keifer in the position taken by him to-day, in favor of Campbell.

WHERE FRIENDSHIP OUGHT TO CEASE.
 A Fair wind from the Democratic coast and the "clever fellow" policy, blew J. M. Flanagan into the Assessor's office. He no doubt entered upon the duties of his office with good intentions. Prosperity and incompetency, coupled with carelessness, and a desire to spend that which was not his own, has made him a defaulter. The result is a ruined man and an indignant constituency.

While taxpayers are generally inclined to be charitable and overlook the mistakes and shortcomings of public servants, it is apparent that they are getting tired of carelessness, incompetency or dishonesty in the management of public affairs.

Washoe county has had a taste of this several times, and forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. It may be good policy to follow the example of New Jersey and put the thumb-screws to unfaithful public servants. It might tend to better protect the interests of taxpayers.

The county now has worthless certificates of deposit to the amount of $1,800 for which a suit is now pending against a defaulting Treasurer's bondsman, for the collection of the same. This "persecuted man" was honest, and everything would be made right if the press and people would give him a show. The people gave him a show. Now comes along an expensive suit for the collection of money fraudulently taken from the county safe.

The better way to settle this trouble of Flanagan is for his bondsman to settle the shortage and ask for his resignation at once. Let the Commissioners then appoint a man who is not "careless," and has some fitness for the position.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to RENO EVENING GAZETTE.
EASTERN.
 A LITERARY ASSASSIN.

WASHINGTON, December 7.
 During the time yesterday when Scoville was reading from Guiteau's book, Guiteau said: "Scoville, you read like a school-boy. You don't put any spirit into it. Let me read."

Guiteau then began reading. He apologized to the audience, by way of preface, by saying, "Ladies and gentlemen, I have not had any practice for so long that my voice may be a little husky; I will, however, do the best I can. I hope you will give your attention. You will find this very interesting reading."

Confusion ensued in the rear of the Court-room, which greatly annoyed Guiteau, and he appealed petulently to Judge Cox, saying: "I must have order in this room or I cannot be heard." Then turning partly round to the audience, "If any one wants to go out, let them go out now, but you must keep order."

Thirty minutes were occupied in reading, when the hour for recess arrived. Counsel for prosecution objected to reading the entire book, and after discussion it was arranged that Scoville should mark such passages as he intended to rely upon or touch upon in his argument, and submit the book to the prosecution to-morrow, with the understanding and agreement between counsel relative to evidence of President Arthur, Scoville announced the close of the defense.

At the request of Col. Corkhill, Court adjourned until to-day, when the prosecution will introduce their evidence in rebuttal.

Arthur on Mormonism.
 SALT LAKE, December 7.
 The tone of the President's message gives great hope to the Gentiles, and the Mormons are anxious. The Deseret News did not issue last evening, the paper concluding to wait until morning and give the full text of the message. The Tribune office is crowded with leading Gentiles, discussing the message, and although it gives general satisfaction, many express the fear that it will end in smoke as usual.

Campbell's Case.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 In the House yesterday Haskell offered a resolution declaring Allen Campbell, Delegate elect from Utah Territory, entitled to be sworn in on a prima facie case. The resolution was under discussion when a point of order was raised against it by Cox, when the President's message was received and read, and the question of swearing in Delegate Campbell went over until to-day.

Chicago Defaults.
 CHICAGO, December 7.
 Yesterday evening capias were issued for the arrest of Wm. R. Larabee, late School Treasurer of the Lake View and Elmwood, and Jarrett, ex-Treasurer of Hyde Park, and Lake school districts. Larabee was indicted for failing to turn over $28,000, held by him and Jarrett, for an alleged defalcation of $60,000.

Cabinet Rumors.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 It is stated that President Arthur will send the names of Frelinghuysen and Brewster for Secretary of State and Attorney-General, respectively to the Senate, to-morrow. Other Cabinet nominations will be made later.

Married Her Paramour.
 CHICAGO, December 7.
 A special from Philadelphia says Miss Nellie Hazeltine, well known as the belle of St. Louis two years ago, and who was reported betrothed to S. J. Tilden, was married to-day to Mr. Fred J. Paramour, a millionaire resident of St. Louis.

New York Quotations.

Central 137 1/2, Erie 44 1/2, Panama 95, Union Pacific bonds 118 1/2, Central Pacific 94, bonds 115, Suto 1 1/2.

Folger's Private Secretary.
 NEW YORK, December 7.
 Frank Sperry, son of Jas. A. Sperry, a Californian 49er, has been appointed Private Secretary to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Common Schools.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 Blair has introduced a bill in the House appropriating $103,000,000 to the aid and support of the common schools. This sum is to be expended in ten annual appropriations.

The Memory of Garfield.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 In the House to-day McKinley offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:
 Resolved, That a committee of one member from each State represented in this House be appointed on the part of the House to join a committee which shall be appointed on the part of the Senate to consider and report by what token of respect and affection it may be proper for the Congress of the United States to express the deep sympathy of the nation at the death of the late President James A. Garfield, and that as much of the message of President Arthur as refers to that event be referred to that committee.

Washington Political News.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 The President's message was generally received with satisfaction and commendation. Some disappointment was expressed that he did not more distinctly and definitely enunciate a policy. This feeling, however, seems confined to those who hope for the domination of a faction of the party. Republicans generally think the President means to entirely ignore factions, and to heal dissensions, and are glad he refrained from saying anything that could be seized upon by either faction.

Western Republicans, especially those from the silver-producing States, are not pleased at the recommendation to limit silver coinage, but they console themselves with the belief that Congress will not carry out that recommendation.

Secretary Hunt will retain his Cabinet position and James will remain until the end of the present fiscal year. It is reported to-night that Kirkwood has also been informed by the President, that he desires him to remain.

It is evident that Republicans are determined to push the matter of the admission of Southern Dakota into the Union. Senators Windom and Saunders have introduced bills for this purpose.

The comment on the President's message among Senators and Congressmen of all shades of political belief appears to be that it is a very able document. There is a general agreement that in clearness of style, dignity of tone and force, and freshness of argument, it is far above the average of President's messages for a number of years, and that it indicates the possession by its author of a much higher grade of ability than has heretofore been commonly attributed to him.

Davis Declares Himself.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 When referring to his acceptance of the position of President of the Senate in his speech to-day, Davis manifested considerable indignation in alluding to various newspaper insinuations that he had sold himself to the Republicans. He was very emphatic in reassuring them that not a single word tending to commit himself to the Republicans had passed between him and them prior to his acceptance of the position. His speech has rendered Senate officials and employees happy.

"Such accusations are made by unworthy minds that would measure the integrity of others by their own low standard of personal honor. The day is drawing near when I shall retire from this chamber. My only ambition while here is to be instrumental in bringing about perfect peace between the North and South as the best means of promoting the permanent prosperity of the whole Union.

If this experiment of Republican government is to endure and be perpetuated, as we all humbly pray God it may be for unborn generations, then the spirit of forbearance and of toleration, in which it was created by the patriotism of our fathers must be revived and imitated. In no other way can that more perfect union, which their inspired wisdom formed out of a disjointed confederation, be preserved as the shining light of a higher civilization, and as a refuge of the oppressed from all nations.

National Banks.
 WASHINGTON, December 7.
 The corporate existence of 396 banks will expire previously to February 25, 1883. Comptroller Knox recommends that an Act be passed authorizing any national bank, at any time within two years prior to the expiration of its corporate existence, to extend its period of succession by amending its articles of association, by the votes of shareholders owning two-thirds of the capital of the association, if such association shall be found to be in a satisfactory condition.

New York Mining Market.
 NEW YORK, December 7.
 The Mining Associated Press reports as follows: Mining stocks yesterday were very active and irregular. Robinson Consolidated opened at $6 38, and after declining to $5 50 closed at $5 75. The State Lines were very active, Nos. 2 and 3 selling up to $2, declining to $1 50 and closing at $1 70. Nos. 4 and 5 were quiet at $39 to $37; Oriental & Miller was dull at $49 to $44; Southern Pacific sales at both exchanges were 243,875 shares; Petroleum is dull.

He Is Responsible.
 INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., December 7.
 Dr. Orpheus says all of the experts on insanity here who have been summoned in the Guiteau case are convinced, by the cross-examination, of Guiteau's responsibility for his crime.

County Commissioners.

The following business was transacted by the full Board of County Commissioners yesterday:

Geo. Humphreys tendered his resignation as Constable of Wadsworth, and J. D. Parks was appointed in his place. The petition of J. V. Lewis came up too late and was denied.

The Treasurer was authorized to pay John Stokes the amount of the principal and interest of his note against the Reno Fire Department.

Mrs. Hill was granted relief to the amount of $12.50.

Geo. D. Winters filed his bond as Road Commissioner of Salt Marsh district.

The petition of citizens of Reno for the appointment of a night watchman was laid over for one month.

J. B. Whitehead's request for $100 to apply to Pyramid Lake road was denied.

Residents of block Q asked the Board to prevent the V. & T. R. R. from keeping cars on a certain crossing. The clerk was ordered to write the Superintendent.

J. Odett was awarded the contract for building a sidewalk in front of Marshall's lot, the Western Union lot and Lafayette Hotel, for $75.

Reports of the Clerk, Auditor and Sheriff were ordered placed on file.

Mrs. M. Cook was allowed $20 relief.

The Board counted the money in the Treasury and found it correct.

Competing Routes.

The Oregon branch of the Union Pacific is being pushed ahead rapidly. It goes within 15 miles of Boise City, Idaho, and it is thought it will be through to Baker City, Idaho, in another year. It will not be at all surprising if there should soon be a line started from this branch some where near the Southern line of Idaho and run down through Surprise valley and Long Valley, and down Feather River into California and San Francisco. It is thought, it will run within 25 miles of Reno, and she would get the entire benefit of competition. There has been a great deal of talk about this scheme in New York and elsewhere, and it is quite feasible.

Holiday Goods.

The magnificent selections of holiday goods ordered by R. E. Queen are arriving, and everyone will have an opportunity of feasting their eyes and presenting their friends with gifts which are new, beautiful, choice and appropriate at any price you may wish to pay. Many of the articles are made of the richest fabrics and are exquisitely beautiful, and his entire stock surpasses anything to be found elsewhere. Go and judge for yourself.

The Salary Law.

The county officers of White Pine have not received any part of their salaries from the county, as provided by law, since April 30th, 1881. Hence each officer has refused to pay over the moneys he has collected in his office for the county, but has filed his statement of fees collected, as the law directs, and is anxious for a settlement. The question is, what are they going to do about it.

PERSONALS.

L. E. Horton, of Loyalton, is in town.

Senator Jones is anxiously expected in Carson.

Ex-deputy State Treasurer Yager has settled in Los Angeles.

CROWING TO GREATNESS.

CALIFORNIA ADVANCING FROM AGRICULTURE TO MANUFACTURES.

The Saline Properties of Fruit Scientifically Extracted and Applied to Relative Suffering.

S. F. Chronicle.

Every addition to the list of home productions is an important public event. Especially is this true when to the economic value of the article produced is added a beneficial effect on the sanitary condition of the people, giving at once labor for man and guaranty of health to enable him to perform it. Until recently the list of manufactures in California has been discouragingly meager. With the decline of the mining industry people have begun to realize the unequalled advantages of this State for agricultural and manufacturing industries. Mills and factories are multiplying on every hand. Soon the hum of the spindle and the voice of the husbandman will silence forever the clamor of the stock gambler and the clatter of the miner's pick and shovel, and we shall have fully entered upon our new and more enduring career of greatness as a manufacturing and agricultural community. These remarks are elicited by observation of

THE WORK OF H. B. SLAVEN, Well known as the leading pharmaceutical and analytical chemist of this coast and proprietor of the popular drug store in the Baldwin building. The most important event in the pharmacy of the Pacific coast was his embarking therein some years ago. His enterprise and skill have enabled him to obtain the front rank in his profession and add very materially to the productions of the State. Many of his productions are already staple articles of the toilet and the sick room, reaching far beyond provincial reputation and demand, and destined to a constantly increasing commercial value. The California Pine and Eucalyptus Porous Plaster is fast superseding all other kinds of plaster in general use. Slaven's Yosemite Cologne has the preference everywhere that it has been introduced, its field having heretofore been limited by a constant demand in excess of its possible production. Slaven's Harmless Yosemite Face Powder has achieved no less popularity, and the like success has attended the Yosemite Cherry Tooth Paste. The vast, successful and important result of his skill and tireless enterprise—important to the State in a commercial point of view, and to future generations as well as the present from a sanitary standpoint—the California Fruit Salt remains to be noticed. Mr. Slaven

COMMENCED EXPERIMENTING For it about five years ago, and perfected it and placed the product upon the market about a year ago. Its success was instantaneous, bordering on the marvelous. Although aware of the merits of his discovery, Mr. Slaven was not prepared for so sudden and general recognition of them by the public, and all his enterprise was distanced in the effort to keep up with the demand. The production of this one article has already proved a material contribution to the manufacturers of California destined to an increase from year to year. The fruit salt is made by a process devised by the discoverer from sound, ripe California fruits, principally the grape, lime, apricot and fig. The juice of these is extracted, then evaporated, and the residual powder after leaving the drying machine, is combined with the salts. The result is an effective cathartic, different from other cathartics on the market in being made from fruits, leaving no deleterious drugs in the system, and in being better in its general effects upon the system, especially its actions upon the liver and kidneys. In its operation

IT PRODUCES NO PAINS, Has a natural action, and tends to invigorate, rather than, like other cathartics, to debilitate, and with the addition of gentian, is made a most agreeable and effective tonic. Regular medical practitioners, as well as the mass of the people of the United States, have come to recognize and use it as a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia, headache, constipation, gout, gravel, serofulous affections, and all diseases originating in disorder of the liver and kidneys. A bottle of citrate of magnesia, a drastic mineral compound, sufficient for a dose, costs twenty-five cents. A half-pound bottle of the Fruit Salt is less bulky and contains thirty or forty doses, costing about three cents each. The California Fruit Salt is not put forth as a patent medicine. Its proprietors, with characteristic public spirit, will furnish a list of its ingredients to any reputable practitioner.

Five Thousand Dollars A Foot.

Here is a stock quotation from July, 1867: Yellow Jacket, $1,650 per foot; Savage, $5,000; Crown Point, $2,200; Gould and Curry, $775; Kentuck, $540; Chollar-Potosi, $450; Belcher, $470; Overman, $230; Ophir, $350; Imperial, $320; Bullion, $54; Justice, $30; Sierra Nevada, $20. Savage was at that time paying a monthly dividend of $300 a foot. It was all feet those days.

Fire At Lewis.

At 1:30 o'clock Monday morning a fire broke out in the Lewis drug store and postoffice, occupied by Dr. J. D. Sponogle, on the west side of Main street, which entirely destroyed the saloon of Alex. Middleton, Merton's barber shop, Sponogle's drug store—a new building just completed—Debler's saloon, several other buildings, and Dunphy's butcher shop. On the east side of the street are Jos. Hill's store, E. B. Ramsdell's store, James Thacker's saloon, L. M. Pugh's hotel, and J. Gerstle's store and several other buildings occupied by saloons and restaurants. There was no insurance on the burned property.

UNCLE BEN JO'S
GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PANACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston in 1800. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1844 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same at a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle J., as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part loses over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle J. named it the Bell Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zar Zarero." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by
